

J Giordano Securities Group Adds Rye, Man & Gor Securities to its International Network

NEW YORK--November 19, 2007--J Giordano Securities Group, an independent, full-service investment banking and brokerage firm, is proud to announce that its International Equity Group has added Rye, Man & Gor Securities (RMG) to its International Network. The addition of RMB in Russia will help expand our research and trading capabilities into the Russian market and complements our existing relationships in Poland, Czech Republic, Hungary, Slovenia, Slovakia, Croatia, Romania, Turkey, Egypt, France, Denmark, Greece, Sweden, Taiwan, and the UK.

Joe Rivello, Managing Director and Head of International Equity Sales at J Giordano Securities Group, indicates, "RMG started trading since the inception of the securities market in Russia. Years of experience translate into a greater understanding of the market: each of their directors has been with the firm for at least ten years. In addition, their research division has over 40 stocks under coverage. We look forward to offering those products and services to US investors interested in investing in Russia."

About J Giordano Securities Group

Headquartered in Stamford, Connecticut, with offices in New York, Boca Raton, Northfield, IL, and Roseland, NJ, J Giordano Securities Group is a leading independent investment bank and brokerage firm with primary and secondary market expertise in international equities, domestic equities, convertibles, high-yield, municipals, asset-backed securities, options, and warrants. J Giordano Securities Group currently employs over 50 investment professionals.

Our International Equities Group, founded and headed by Joe Rivello, is focused on providing high quality, in-depth foreign trading and research capabilities to our U.S. institutional clients, including mutual funds, pension funds, and hedge funds. The International Network is composed of strategic agreements with highly respected and reputable foreign brokers, including some of the largest brokerage firms operating in their respective markets. Their excellent trading capacity provides liquidity to our clients and strengthens the overall network. J Giordano's International Group now has over 500 stocks under coverage, through a network of 15 countries and 75+ analysts in local markets. Local research with local insight is our focus and goal.

Company Website: www.jgiordano.com

Research portal: www.jgio.com (password required)

About Rye, Man, & Gor Securities

Founded in 1991 by Alexey Goryachev and Arshak Manasov, Rye, Man and Gor Securities is a leader in providing brokerage services on the Russian equities market. Today, RMG offers a full spectrum of services on the Russian equities market to both experienced and first-time investors, including brokerage, asset management, research services, corporate finance, project finance, and legal assistance. Rye, Man & Gor Securities combines an innovative approach to finance solutions with an intimate knowledge of Russian business and access to a wide array of economic and industry information. We count leading international investment banks and financial institutions among our clients and also cooperate with the biggest Russian financial structures.

RMG Website: www.rmg.ru

Contacts:

Joe Rivello

Managing Director & Head of International Equity Sales

212-209-7681

jrivello@jgiordano.com